When you go on holiday, why stay in a place just like home?

Our traditional Irish cottage, dating from the Eighteenth Century, provides Four Star holiday accommodation and will give you the experience of a lifetime on the Causeway Coast of Northern Ireland.

Coves' Cottage is compact and cosy; full of character and charm. Take a step back in time and experience life as it once was in Ireland but with the unobtrusive assistance of modern home comforts. At the Coves you will relax and be refreshed as you drift into yesterday.

Living accommodation

Coves' Cottage provides Four Star NITB approved self-catering accommodation

The open plan living/ dining/ kitchen area is extremely cosy and comfortable. After a day of sight-seeing, relax around the wood-burning stove (wood supplied) and read, watch TV or a DVD.

A DVD library and Board games are provided for your use.

The area boasts a great many high quality restaurants but you will waken in the mornings ready for a good Irish breakfast or come home late wanting a supper. All modern facilities are available to cook whatever you wish and to wash up afterwards.

And if you need to wash the children's swim wear or your favourite tee-shirt, the washer/dryer will have it all ready for you going out again.

Traditional style Belfast sink, Washing Machine/dryer, electric cooker, dishwasher, coffee-maker, toaster, all delph and cutlery etc.

Sleeping accommodation

All on ground floor self-catering accommodation for three adults, one child and an infant.

The main bedroom is a peaceful haven of tranquility after a tiring day. You will sleep soundly in a warm and comfortable double bed and waken refreshed to begin a new day of exploring the wonders of Ireland's North Coast.

The second bedroom is quirky and cosy, suitable for children or adults. There might be a fight over who gets the top bunk! The room has hanging space and room to store those holiday suitcases.

All bed linen is supplied and the rooms have Electric heating.

There is space in either room for an infant's cot, if required.

The Bathroom is off the hall and is beautifully equipped with a shower over a Victorian style slipper bath, a sink and toilet. The bathroom and the water are heated by electricity.
